Whitman argues that the Obama administration's appeasement of Iran, its abandonment of Iraq, and its failure to confront the threat of radical Islam have created a vacuum that has allowed our enemies to flourish. He calls for a new strategy that includes a strong military presence in the Middle East, a tough stance against Iran, and a comprehensive effort to counter the ideology of radical Islam.

Whitman's book is a must-read for anyone who is concerned about the future of our country and the safety of our families.
