On Full Automatic is a gripping and unforgettable memoir of a young man's 13 months in Vietnam.

Author Gary L. Leffew was just 19 years old when he was drafted into the US Army and sent to Vietnam. He served with the 1st Air Cavalry Division, one of the most decorated units in the war.

On Full Automatic is a powerful and moving account of the horrors of war and the resilience of the human spirit. Leffew writes with honesty and candor about the fear, the violence, and the camaraderie he experienced in Vietnam. He also writes about the lasting effects of the war on his life, including the PTSD he has struggled with for decades.

On Full Automatic is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the Vietnam War and its impact on the men and women who fought in it. It is a powerful and moving story of survival, resilience, and courage.
