

"Sunderkand In English" by Tali Goodwin: An Epic Tale Of Devotion and Courage

The Sunderkand is the fifth book of the Ramayana, one of the two major Sanskrit epics of ancient India. It tells the story of Hanuman's journey to Lanka to find Sita, the kidnapped wife of Rama. Hanuman is a devoted servant of Rama, and his journey is a testament to his unwavering faith and courage.

"Sunderkand In English" by Tali Goodwin is a beautiful and engaging translation of this epic tale. Goodwin's translation is clear and concise, and she captures the beauty and power of the original Sanskrit text. She also includes helpful footnotes and commentary, which provide context and insights into the story.
