In the early hours of June 10, 2008, Sarah Walker was awakened by a phone call from her ex-husband. He told her that their two sons, 11-year-old Zachary and 9-year-old Tyler, had been murdered.

Sarah was devastated. She couldn't believe that her two beautiful boys were gone. She had always been a loving and supportive mother, and she couldn't understand why anyone would want to hurt her children.

The police quickly arrested Sarah's ex-husband, Paul Conn. He was charged with two counts of murder and one count of child abuse. Conn pleaded not guilty to all charges.

The trial was a difficult time for Sarah. She had to relive the horrific events of that night over and over again. She also had to face the man who had killed her sons.

In the end, Conn was found guilty of all charges. He was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole.

Sarah was relieved that Conn had been convicted, but she knew that she would never be able to get over the loss of her sons. She wrote a book about her experience in the hopes that it would help other families who have lost loved ones to violence.

The True Story Of Mother Two Sons And Horrifying Murder is a gripping and heartbreaking account of a mother's struggle to come to terms with the murder of her two sons. The book is a must-read for anyone who has ever lost a loved one to violence.
